DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Applicant's election with traverse of species 1 (claims 1-2, 5 and 7) in a communication filed on 03/03/2005 is acknowledged. It is respectfully noted that applicant's arguments are directed to support applicant's conclusion that claim 1 is generic but they did not traverse the species restriction. In that regards, the examiner agrees that claim 1 is generic. Nevertheless, in the restriction requirement set forth in the Office Action sent on 02/09/2005, it was clearly established that the application contains claims directed to patentably distinct species wherein each species is associated to each of the different embodiments depicted in the drawings. The examination of all the species is considered a serious burden since each species contains features that make them distinct and non-obvious over the other. Therefore, a complete and independent examination would be required for each of the disclosed species. Furthermore, the criterion for restriction of species is not whether the groups are coextensive but that the claims recite mutually exclusive characteristics of such species (MPEP § 806.04(f)). To traverse on the grounds that the species are not patentably distinct, the applicant should submit evidence, or identify such evidence in the record, showing the species to be obvious variants, or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either case, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) against the other invention(s). Because the applicant did not distinctly and specifically point out the supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election has been treated as an election without traverse (MPEP § 818.03(a)).

Priority

2. Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1-2, 5 and 7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Tokuno et al. (US 5,883,426).

5. Regarding claim 1, Tokuno (e.g. fig. 2) shows a system 10 in package structure, comprising: a first substrate 2 (lower substrate); a first chip 1, which is formed on and electrically connected to the first substrate; a first heat-dissipation component 7c having a heat-conducting portion, which is formed above the first chip; a second substrate 2, which is set above the first heat-dissipating component and electrically connected to the first substrate; and a second chip 1, which is formed on and electrically connected to the second substrate by bump connections 6.

6. Regarding claim 2, Tokuno shows a second heat-dissipating 7b component formed above the second chip.

7. Regarding claim 5, Tokuno shows that the first heat-dissipating component and the heat-conducting portion are an integrally formed metallic thin plate (e.g. fig. 3 & claim 5).

8. Regarding claim 7, Tokuno shows a bump 6 formed between the first and second substrate and electrically connect the first substrate and the second substrate.
